

ABSTRACT OF TITLE
BAY COUNTY LAND & ABSTRACT COMPANY, INC.
Entry No. _____ PANAMA CITY, FLORIDA

BAY COUNTY, FLORIDA

The County of Bay in the State of Florida, was created by an Act of the Legislature of the State of Florida in 1913, which Act became effective July 1, 1913, as provided by Section 2, of Chapter 6506, Acts of 1913. All of the land described in the Caption of this Abstract was formerly part of Washington County, Florida, prior to the effective date of this Act.

The boundaries of Bay County, Florida, as established by the Acts of 1913 are as follows:

SECTION 17 (15) Bay. - The County of Bay shall be bounded as follows: commencing at the Southwest corner of section eighteen in township two north, range eleven west; thence west along section line to the southwest corner of section eighteen in township two, north, range twelve, west; thence south along the range line dividing ranges twelve and thirteen, west to the meridian base line; thence west along the base line to the main channel of Pine Log creek in range sixteen, west; thence down the main channel of said creek into the Choctawhatchee river to the main channel of said river, thence down the main channel of said river to a point where said river intersects the range line dividing ranges seventeen and eighteen, west; thence south down said range line to the Gulf of Mexico; thence in a southeasterly direction following the meanderings of said Gulf, including all islands opposite the shore line to a point where range line dividing ranges eleven and twelve, west, intersects with said Gulf; thence North along said range line to place of beginning. (Ch. 6505, Acts of 1913, 1; Ch. 6506, Acts 1913, 1; Ch. 6508, Acts 1913, 1.)
